

Business Management International

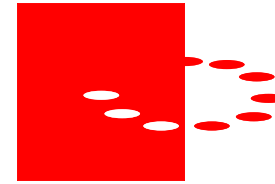

Provides skills and competency training to “bridge the skills gap for improved productivity”

for graduates across Asia who seek to develop or gain additional skills to compete in the new global economy...

Level 29, Central World
999/9 Rama 1 Road, Patumwan
Bangkok 10330 Thailand
(+66) 2 207 2489

Or Contact us through our web site
www.bminst.com

BMI Skills Training

Skills training for graduates.

Thailand / Australia / Singapore / Hong Kong / Philippines / Malaysia

Skills training for you...

There exists, a gap between expectations of employers and the business skills of employees or potential employees. Many do not understand the practices of good business...

Business Management International (“BMI”) has a practical solution to business skills training. Please refer to us at www.bminst.com

Our course curriculum and content was researched and developed by a leading Australian accredited University along with internationally renowned business executives and will enhance your company’s skills training outcomes.

Delivered and assessed on-line, this is an ideal way for today’s graduates to efficiently obtain additional and practical business skills training.

Skills Course Modules

- Governance of business.
- Management Principles and Practices.
- Business Performance and measurement
- Business Elements ;
(Finance, Manufacturing, IT, Logistics, Supply Chain, Sales and Marketing)
- International Trade
- Business Health.
- Human Resources and Behaviour.
- Contemporary Management Issues.

“BRIDGING THE SKILLS GAP TO INCREASE PRODUCTIVITY”

Employees will benefit

Through improved capability and business skills

By exposure to International standards and best practices of management and business

Understanding the style, nature, function and characteristics of international business operations

Increasing productivity through new skills and capabilities

Employers will benefit by...

Increased productivity.

Retaining valuable staff.

Improving ROI and cost of doing business

Having staff that understand the nature , performance, demands of the Global Economy

Instituting “ best practices” for improved productivity.

Business Management (International) is a Thai based subsidiary of BMI Australia Pty Ltd and operates across Asia Pacific and the Middle East.

BMI provides Education and Training offerings focused on graduates and recent graduates (whether or not employed) and companies working in the Global community.

The overriding objective of the Programs is;

“to enhance an individual’s skills and capabilities for improved business performance”